GOSSIP OF THE RUNNERS.

RACING OF METROPOLITAN CIRCUIT WILL BEGIN TO DAY AT AQUEDUCT. Carter Handicap the Star Feature of the Card

-Nineteen Horses Eligible With Intrusive Top Weight -Nominations for the Futurity The Winning Owners at Bennings. To-day at Aqueduct the curtain will rise on the Metropolitan racing season, which it tory of the Jockey Club. The chief event on the card is the Carter Handicap for threeyear-olds and upward, which has been gaining in popular favor every year. Nominally the race is at seven furlongs, but the course is 100 feet short of that distance. The record is

1:24%, and the number of really good animals engaged this year has led to the prediction that new figures will be established. Of the forty-nine entries, nineteen are still on the card and more than half of these are expected card and more than half of these are expected to line up for the start.

Intrusive is top weight with 126 pounds, but he ran disappointingly in the First Bennings Spring Handleap and will have to-show great improvement to finish in front of those that beat him on that occasion. Heliobas, 124 pounds, has his victory in the Reaper Stakes last year to recommend him. In that race he beat Voter, Brigadier and several other speedy sprinters. Charentus, 115 pounds is next in order of weight. The old campaigner ran third in the Bennings Handleap and with Burns or Shaw in the saddle will have many followers. Others who have showed good form at the Washington Jockey Club meeting are: Sidney Lucas, 116 pounds; Alsike, 98 pounds; The Rhymer, 100 pounds, Isla 100 pounds; Robert Waddell, 100 pounds, and Gold Fox, 107 pounds. The value of the race to the winner will be $1,550. Six races are on the card, opening at 2:30 o clock with a selling race for three-year-olds and upward. The entries follow:

BASEBALL.

Will Be Faster Under New Rnies, but Changes Are Needed.

With the National League championship eason scheduled to open next Thursday the magnates have not yet decided whether to rescind the new rules regarding the "foul ball strike," and the "hit by pitcher," though there has been a widespread protest against these changes from all other leagues, the colleges and amateur clubs. In changing the rules so that the catcher must stay up behind the bat all through the game and the pitcher cannot "warm up" with the infield-ers, the magnates have made the play faster and the games as a whole shorter. But they did not have to make even these changes, for under the old rules the games could have been hustled along without trouble. It was the prevalence of kicking and disorderly conduct on the diamond that delayed the play and nothing else. The new rules have been tried by all of the big professional teams this spring and the players unite in saying that it is possible to play any game inside of 1 hour and 50 minutes and still indulge in the usual kicking. They say that the hurrying up of the catcher and pitcher has cut off an average of thirty minutes per game that would otherwise have been lost. Still, the players to a man declare that the rule calling foul bells strikes and the rule allowing a pitcher to hit a batsman without the usual penalty are mistakes that are bound to do the game harm. If the National League does not cut out these changes until after the season begins it is pointed out that the official averages will be much affected. James A. Hart, chairman of the Rules Committee, stubbornly insists that the changes will turn out to be just what the game needs; that the rules were changed for the benefit of the public, not the players—an explanation calculated to create mirth among those who have watched the magnates in their long struggle to please the patrons of the game.

Pitcher Hawley, with the New Yorks last for under the old rules the games could have Pitcher Hawley, with the New Yorks last year, has formally signed a Milwaukee American League contract and will report to Manager Duffy to-morrow. Hawley gave out that he had signed some time ago, but it appears that he had a temporary agreement with the Milwaukee officials.

Half Brother to Voter Dead.

LEXINGTON, April 14.-James R. & F. P. Keene lost by death to-day, at Castleton, a half-brother to the racehorse Voter in the days old chestnut coit by Kingston out of Mayourneen, a highly prized mare. The youngster was affected with weakness The youngster was affected with weakness of the heart and never railied.

Severaine, by imp. Rayon D'Or dam Sultana, by Lexington, a young mare just shipped here from England by Mr. August Belmont, has foaled a fine chestmut colt by Galazo, a son of Galopin. This is the first of the get of this sire, which is one of the most highly prized in Baron Rothschild's stud in England.

H. J. Knapp and F. R. Hitchcock of New York arrived here to-night to look over thoroughbred horses at Beaumont Farm owned by them. They will also visit other stock establishments while here.

TETO WINS BY A HEAD. LITTLE MARE HAS A GREAT BRUSH WITH SWIFT ON SPEEDWAY.

Red Lawn Finishes Half a Length Ahead o John Cockerill's Trotter, but in Second Trial Mr. Lamar's Horse Throws a Boot and Is Pulled Up -Good Day's Sport on the Drive. John Cockerill's crack trotter, and the little trotting mare Teto were the stars of the Speedway brushes yesterday. The footing was not so good as might have been expected. being quite rough in places, especially on the upper stretch. Speeding was rather tame until David Lamar drove up behind his pacer. The crowd which lined the sidewalk on the Harlem River side and leaned on the iron rail on the slope against the bluff cheered as he jogged up the course, for it was

In a few minutes a cloud of dust at the bend above the point of rocks indicated that a race was on.

As the horses came in range it was seen that Swift and Red Lawn were having a battle royal. Necks were craned and shouts of "Here they come!" were heard all along the line. Both horses went without a skip or break and each driver appeared at his best. Within 100 yards of the finishing postit looked as though Red Lawn would have an eary thing of it, but Swift made a desperate rush and gained a great deal of ground in the last few strides. He was unable, however, to head the dogged bay pacer, that passed the line a good half length in the lead. The result was unsatisfactory to Mr Cockerill and Mr. Lamar consented to another trial. They had a good start this time, but as they were rounding the bend Red Lawn threw a boot and left his stride. He was pulled up and Mr. Cockerill went down alone. The crowd cheered him as he finished.

Trainer Jack Curry jogged up at this stage with the breedy looking, nervous little mare part of the crowd had started for home and missed seeing the most exciting finish of the day. Teto was on edge and appeared to enjoy the sport quite as well as her driver. She was as steady as a machine. Swift also showed good, game staying qualities and put in his best licks, regardless of the fact that he had shready had enough fast work to have pumped out any ordinary horse. Down from the bend there was not a fact that he had shready had enough fast work to have pumped out any ordinary horse. enjoy the sport quite as well as her driver. She was as steady as a machine. Swift also showed good, game staying qualities and put in his best licks, regardless of the fact that he had already had enough fast work to have pumped out any ordinary horse. Down from the bend there was not a falter to the finish and not a half length's difference between them for the entire distance. They were on even terms within a very few feet of the post, when Teto put her nose in front and won by a head.

Dr. David Randell's dusty pacer, Moth Miller, was much in evidence and would dash down the course with anything and everything that came his way, and was victorious in every brush. He handlly disposed of the old campaigner Massot early in the day, and made quite an interesting brush with Homer Davenport's Edward W. In all of his races he was in the lead from one to three lengths and appeared to be in excellent shape. His owner will meet Mr. Frankenstein this afternoon for the purpose of making a match race with Grant, another Speedway favorite.

Fred Dietz's handsome bay mare, Miss Overton, showed her heels cleverly to everything she started against. She is a smooth, easy-gaited mare and acted yeaterday as though she could make it interesting for any trotter on the drive. She had an interesting brush with Alice B, driven by John Pirung, which she won by a length. On his way home Mr. Dietz encountered a big-gaited trotter on the lower stretch from High Bridge to the macadam and made a warm argument of it. One hundred yards from the foot of the hill Miss Overton was more than a length ahead, going without effort, while the big bay was being driven to his limit. He could not gain an inch on the mare, however.

There was a good three-cornered brush hetween Pete Radiler's Alice Hel John F.

could not gain an inch on the mare, however.

There was a good three-cornered brush between Pete Radiker's Alice Hal, John F. Cockerill's Swift and A. Myers's Peter H. They made a pretty show down the straight from the bend and finished in the order named, with close to a length between them. Peter H. then started against John Timmons's Harry Davis and finished half a length ahead Homer Davenport did quite a lot of "scuilling" with Edward W. and Carrillon. With the former he beat Mascot and also showed the way to Ambro, driven by H. O. Mix. With Carrillon he had two interesting set-tos with the big, white faced gelding Headlight, driven by Dr. H. D. Gill. The first brush was on the upper stretch and resulted in a close finish, Carrillon winning by a neck. They tried it again on the lower stretch on their way home. They got a good start under High Bridge. carrillon winning by a need. They fried it again on the lower stretch on their way home. They got a good start under High Bridge with Headlight going away in the lead Carrillon, however, showed ability to go to the front. After a few strides Headlight went to a break near the curb and dropped several lengths to the rear. Carrillon went on and tried to overtake a black pacer that was many lengths ahead of him, and by the time Headlight struck his stride was almost lost in a cloud of dust near the foot of the hill.

President H. H. Kane of the Road Drivers' Association, made his first appearance on the drive since he sold his string of Alcander pacers. He intends to get a string of trotters together and yesterday he appeared with his first purchase, Wonderful Wilkes. The horse had shown satisfactorily in jogging, but when he was called on for speed he went into the ground, much to the doctor's disgust. The horse was sent back. A. B. Gwathmey jogged Salient, and Nathan Straus sent Cobwebs through the stretch, but did not mix with the brushing brigade. F. G. Schmidt showed quite a lot of speed with his pacer. Excellence, and George Coleman drove a good-looking roan.

ON THE BROOKLYN SPEEDWAY.

A Lively Three-Cornered Brush Won by the Bay Stallion Smith.

Half a gale of wind did not keep the Brookyn drivers of fast steppers from going out esterday and the Speedway was well filled both morning and afternoon. It was not all that could be desired, but in the centre was fairly fast, though the wind prevented any great showing of speed There was very little brushing in the forenoon and was toward evening before the best sport of the day was furnished. This consisted two heats in a three-cornered trot between E. Smith's bay stallion, Smith, 2-13; Capt W. H. Guy's Iveta, 2:14, and E A Whitney's Bridget Carroll, 217 On the first trip down Smith got the best of the start, with Iveta last away Iveta passed Carroll, but could not travel fast enough to close with Smith and was beaten handily

NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN.

Large Crowd of Riders in an Ill Wind -Bicycl "Cop" Versus Motor Cycle.

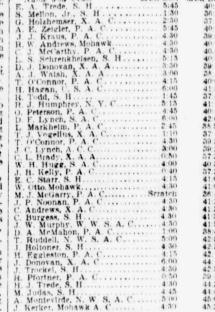

It was a cross wind that blew illy for all evelists that came out of the East vesterday. but neither that nor the gray skies was sufficient to check the new enthusiasm for wheeling that is unmistakably present this spring The crowd out was not so large as on Palm Sunday, two weeks ago, although the Boulevard and Riverside Drive and the avenues uptown had the biggest crowd they have een this spring. The popular Merrick road the faces of those who sought it and most of them turned about and made for Coney that is surprising at this time of the year. Commissioner Brower put the rollers to work immediately after the several days of rain and the paths are now as good as in midevident there would be something doing summer. Five or six thousand riders, about In a few minutes a cloud of dust at the bend 5 per cent. of them women, travelled over the paths yesterday.

E. A. Trede Wins Shamrock Handicap -Pas times Capture Team Honors.

Prize winners were plentiful in the open cross-country handicap of the Shamrock Harriers yesterday afternoon, the start being from 177th street and Jerome avenue. The leading individual honors were won by the promoting club. E. A. Treede of the Shamrocks started fifteen seconds after the limit man, assumed the lead before going a mile, and finished the lead before going a mile, and finished the lead before going a mile, and finished the six miles without turning a hair, fifty wards in front of his clubmate, S. Mellor, Jr., The latter, in addition to the second prize captured the fast-time one. He covered the course in 36 minutes 20 seconds, while the scratch man, M. J. McGarry, of the Pastimes, who finished fifth, took twenty-eight seconds longer to negotiate the six miles. Thirteen men received individual prizes, while the list was further increased by three novice prizes won by R. W. Andrews, Mohawk A. C.; L. Schrenkeisen, Shamrock Harriers, and H. Hagan, Union Settlement A. C. There was a rattling contest for the three team trophies. The Pastime A. C. won the chief honors with a score of 42. The Shamrocks were second with 48, and the Xavier A. C. third with 61 points. from 177th street and Jerome avenue. The lead-were second with 48, and the Xavier A. C. third with 61 points.

Some excitement was caused by four men, headed by J. J. Joyce of the Xavier A. C., finishing about four minutes in front of F. A. Trede. Scarcely had the judges taken their numbers when W. S. French, who, mounted on a bicycle, acted as patrol judge, arrived with the information that they had cut the course, and the quartet was disqualified. The order of finish follows:

Whitney's Bridget Carroll, 217 On the first trip down Smith got the best of the start, with Iveta last away Iveta passed Carroll, but could not travel fast enough to close with Smith and was beaten handily. They made another "go" of it and got away in better order, but in less than a quarter of a mile Iveta went up in the air. Bridget Carroll sailed along bravely for a half a mile and then was pulled down two lengths behind the stallion, who went as steady as a walking beam.

Altogether Smith showed about the best of anything in the afternoon, though he did not arrive on the scene early enough to meet what was the sensation of the day. This was the bay pacing gelding Scott 2:19%, driven by Mrs. C. M. Tiffany, one of the best reinswomen who use the Speedway. She was seated alone in a speeding wagon. She made two turns in the early afternoon and nothing that she met could hold the pacer Capt Guy with Iveta met J. Clint Brower with the mysterious roan pacer that he bought from "Doc" Waters and which for want of a known name the frequenters of the Speedway call "Tom" and the roan succumbed.

Later Brower engaged Matt Belford, who was driving Truxon, and the roan won a well-earned victory. Bridget Carroll also got some satisfaction out of the afternoon before meeting defeat by the hooks of Spouth processing and will be a feerable victory. LEGISLATIVE MATTERS WILL BE THE LEADING FEATURES. Report About Ready Women to Announce

Their Plans on Wednesday - Dwight School

Will Challenge Cutler -Brown at Fox Hills Aside from the usual array of club competitions and team matches on Saturday the interest in prize play this week will centre Meadow Golf Club to-day, to-morrow and on Thursday, and in the mixed foursomes at the ountry Club of Lakewood on Friday. The play at Dyker Meadow is for the two cups presented by Mrs. Howard F. Whitney beween the sixteen who qualified at medal play n last Thursday. The best score, 111, was made by Miss F. Wallace and the donor of the cups made 112. Mrs. Whitney, however, refused to keep on for her own cups. Mrs. W. Gibbs, who had led the field in the second set, was placed in the first eight and Miss M. Abbott advanced from the "also rans" into the second set. The order of play for the first round will be as follows:

First Cup—Miss F. Wallace and Mrs. W. Gibbs;
Mrs. J. H. Merrist and Mrs. E. L. Kalbfleisch, Jr.;
Miss E. Pearsail and Miss L. Wallace; Miss Grace
Chauncey and Mrs. A. E. Smylle
Second Cup—Mrs. D. Geddes and Miss Madeline

Miss M. Abbott and Mrs. W. Beard; Mrs. E. H. Smith and Miss Hinman.

The semi-finals will be on Thursday and the final round early next week. The Coun-try Club of Lakewood mixed foursomes will be for two prizes presented by the club.

be for two prizes presented by the club.

To-day the Metropolitan Handicapping Committee is to make public its report, according to rumor, and, with 1,500 players from forty-five clubs rated from scratch to 17, against 924 last year, the list should be quite a complete record of the active playing strength of the M. G. A. The season's exhibition has brought out most strikingly that Travis and Douglas are better than all the other golfers. It would surprise no one if they were put on the plus 2 mark. Last year Travis. Douglas and Harriman were the scratch men. The latter has hardly lived up to the reputation he then had, but both Travis and Douglas are better than when the 1900 handicaps were brought out. Another happening of the week on the legislative side of the game will concern the women players. It will be the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Women's Metropolitan Association on Wednesday. It is a postponed affair from April 1, and, besides selecting the course on which the championship tournament is to be played in May, it is expected that the conditions that are to govern the team matches this season will be made public. The Morris County Golf Club women hold the team championship and Miss Genevieve Hecker of the Wee Burn Golf Club is the individual champion. The Women's Association, with a picked team, also has a win on the Griscom cup, the trophy to be played for annually in a team match with the Women's Golf League of Philadelphia.

Princeton, Yale and Harvard teams have developed winning golf in the last fortnight, although the boys from "Old Nassau" lost on the point system to Baltusrol on Saturday. Columbia will not show its team strength until May 4 at the Nassau Country Club, but there is little doubt but that the boys will be ready when asked the question. The other team mentioned as a possible starter at the Intercollegiate tournament at Atlantic City during the week of May 7, the University of Pennsylvania, has not shown up very well. On Saturday the team was beaten by 27 to 0 by the Overbrook, Pa., Golf Club, not a collegian scoring.

Hot Springs, N. C. April 14.—The open, mixed foursome vesterday brought out a close finish between Mrs. E. C. Laird and J. E. Rumbough and Miss Kate Garrett and Louis Sledge, the former pair winning on thenine-teenth hole. The other starters were Miss M. Parrish and J. J. McCloskey, Miss Wilson and Mr. Maltov, Mrs. W. A. Bass and J. C. Rumbough, Miss L. V. Sampson and H. S. Beard and Miss Louise Hoffman and Mr. Brooke.

T. N. Foster, one of the prominent golf players of the Essex County Country Club, is at Atlantic City. In a letter to a friend he speaks in the highest terms of the Atlantic City links. It is his opinion that the Golf Committee of the Essex Country Club should visit Atlantic City for the purpose of examining the arrangement of the bunkers and other hazards with a view of making desirable changes in the home links. changes in the home links.

According to A. Evans, President of the Dwight School Golf Club, his organization was not asked to play in the interscholastic tournament last week at the Oakland Golf Club. The Dwight boys feel aggrieved and they have challenged the Cutler team to a match to show publicly what they can do against the winners at Oakland.

Jr. at Prestwick, and in 1891 he was sixth to Hugh Kirkcaldy at St. Andrews, but his entry was thrown out for an irregularity. To complete Brown's tally to the present time, he did not start in 1893, 1898 and 1900; in 1890 he withdrew after the first round, while the new importation was eighth in 1892 and 1894 and in sixth place in 1895, 1896 and 1897. Brown began his career at the age of 15, when in 1883 he tied with Willie Park. Sr. in a professional competition at Musselburgh. In 1898 the Midlands championship fell to Brown. Tom Williamson taking second place and W. H. Way the third. In 1893 and 1900 Brown was third for the same title. The new professional was a pupil of Willie Park, Sr. and he is one of the orthodox school of golf.

Belleville, April 14—The Forest Hill

Belleville, April 14—The Forest Hill golf grounds are to be extended so as to include an eighteen-hole course, provided 100 new members can be secured. The proposed change will cost $3,500. The extension, it is said, will mean the absorbing of the Roseville Golf Club, which has a membership of forty-five.

CORBETT STOPS FIGHTING.

He Will Not Even Spar in Public Again - Says Acting Is Easier Business.

Jim Corbett has made up his mind to quit the ring for good He arrived at this conclusion on Saturday night. He thinks he was cut out for an actor and will stick to that profession. In a talk with a reporter of THE "I wish to announce to the public and my admirers all over the country that I will never fight any more. That is on the level and no bluff. So determined am I to abandon the ring forever that I have decided not even to spar in public again. I will, inowever, do gymnasium work for the benefit of my health, which, of course, is the privilege of any ordinary person. I am making a big hit as a monologue artist. I am booked ahead for the whole summer season. I also appear at clubs and at private residences where an ordinary puglist could not even enter. I like to be an actor. It is easier than fighting and it is more enjoyable. Besides it gives a man a better prestige.

"I was anxious to fight Jim Jeffries, but as long as he has said that he will never take me on I might as well give up the idea of ever fighting again. He is the champion and it was my ambition to regain my title. I may vi-it England next fall and introduce my act over there." dmirers all over the country that I will never Annual Meeting of the Association To-morrow. At the Metropolitan Club to-morrow night the Polo Association will hold its tenth annual meeting. The by-laws have been under revision for a year and the new rules will be vision for a year and the new rules will be acted on. The height of the ponies is to be kept at 14.2 hands, but hereafter it will not be necessary to register a pony at the beginning of the season, for instead the referee can put out of the game any pony he discovers to be over height or in any other way not desirable. Another change to be made is that play shall stop at the sound of the bell at the end of each period. The practice of playing on until a goal is scored in the overtime will be abolished. This, according to the experts, has neutralized in the past the handicap ratings, which have been based on four periods of fifteen minutes of play. H. L. Herbert will undoubtedly be reelected to the chairmanship. This year there are three bidders for the championship tournament, the Brookline Country Club, Saratoga Polo Club and the Buffalo Country Club. Should the event go to Buffalo the matches will be held in the city park, which is nearly as well adapted to the event as the Prospect Park field, where the championships have been decided since 1893. So many of the players will wish to take in the Pan-American Exposition that Buffalo may get the big event. The time will be the second and third weeks of July. The dates and places of all the season's tournaments will be settled to-morrow night. Last year there were ninety contests, a gratifying increase over the seventy-five of 1899 and forty-five of 1898. The Bryn Mawr. Pa. Polo Club has been elected a member of the association, and a club is to be started at Seabright.
